

Directions ...

By car:

We recommend you to take the A3 motorway when travelling from the south, east or north, and to use the A52 motorway from the west (from the direction of Mönchengladbach). Free visitor parking is available at the Stahl-Zentrum.

Leave the A3 at the Mettmann exit in the direction of Düsseldorf, follow the B7 (the Bergische Landstrasse) which becomes Ludenberger Strasse after several kilometres. Leave the B7 at the Stauffenplatz and follow the Grafenberger Allee in the direction of the town centre (Zentrum). After about one kilometre turn right into Sohnstrasse at the McDonald's. After approx. 500 m you will see the Stahl-Zentrum on the right.

Coming from the A52 on the left of the Rhine, follow the B7 and go over the Theodor-Heuss Bridge on the B1/B7/B8 and continue along Heinrichstrasse (B7) in the direction of Grafenberg. After approx. one kilometre turn right into Graf-Recke-Strasse, then left at the next traffic lights into Fritz-Wüst-Strasse which joins Sohnstrasse. You will find the Stahl-Zentrum on the left.

By plane:

You will land at Düsseldorf International Airport. We recommend you take a taxi straight to us (drive time approx. 15 minutes) or the S-Bahn (tram S7) to the main station (Hauptbahnhof).

By train and bus:

Take bus route 834 from the main station (Hauptbahnhof) in the direction of Belsenplatz and get out after about ten minutes at the "Sohnstrasse" bus stop, located immediately in front of our building.
